

Ayudante Information for La Semana 2008

July 28 through August 1

All Saints Catholic Church, Lakeville, MN

An exciting week is in store for you at La Semana this year. A lot of your time will be spent with the younger campers who treasure you as friends and role models. Your participation in camp activities with them makes their camp experience even more meaningful and fun. You will also have many opportunities to spend time with your friends and peers. Thanks to the feedback you provided at the end of camp, there are some changes incorporated this year.

New this year ----

Teen Breakfast: There will be a teen breakfast every morning from 8:30 to 9 AM (before camp starts). On Monday and Friday, the breakfast will be in room 108 (small teen room). On Tuesday through Thursday, it will be in the north end of the cafeteria.

This is a pot luck event by teens for teens– you are assigned to please bring the following:

___ 1 gallon of fruit juice ___ 12 donuts ___ 12 bagels ___ 2 tubs of cream cheese

___ Monday ___ Tuesday ___ Wednesday ___ Thursday ___ Friday

Teen Soccer Game: We will have a soccer game for interested senior teens on Monday from 3-4pm on the south field of All Saints.

Valley Fair Day: On Wednesday, senior teens can spend the day at Valley Fair amusement park (see enclosed information sheet and permission form).

This year we are fortunate that one of our parent volunteers, Kate Hathaway, a psychologist, will take the role of “special needs/inclusion coordinator.” Her job is to help identify areas where additional guidance or assistance might be helpful – both with the younger campers and for you in your work with classroom facilitators and fellow Ayudantes. The intent is to all work together to make the week feel even more welcoming, inclusive of all, and positive. Kate will work out of our teen room area and be available to help us with suggestions and as our own teen/camper resource person. If you want to contact her with questions before camp her email is hatha001@umn.edu.

During camp the main teen leaders to contact for questions will be Sherry Stern, Jenny and Michael Merdinger, Gary Jurek, Kate Hathaway and Kerry Noyes (Mon-Wed). A big thank you goes to all our parent leaders. You can find their names as well as directions to the camp and updated camp information at www.lasemana.org.

Volunteer Certificate- This year we would like to recognize our dedicated Ayudantes by giving you a certificate for 18 hours of volunteer time helping our La Semana campers. Please come by the teen area on Friday at the end of camp to receive your certificate.

Teen/Alumni Task Force- Parents, teens and alumni interested in being on a task force this year to evaluate the teen/alumni programs please contact our next camp chair, Melinda Greer. Watch the LaSemana website or Camp Daily Newsletters for more information. Alternatively you may send an email to lasemana@gmail.com and you will be contacted when task force meetings are planned.

- Campers should give proper attention to personal cleanliness and dress appropriately. Campers will wear a camp tee shirt at all times. If campers are deemed to be wearing inappropriate attire they may be sent home, asked to change, or instructed to wear more appropriate attire on subsequent days.
- All classroom assignments are final.
- All participants in La Semana and PLAC are expected to treat each other in a respectful manner at all times, including the months outside of camp. I understand that precautions will be taken to ensure the safety of all participants.

I give my permission to be photographed and/or videotaped, knowing that such pictures, images and audiovisuals may be disseminated to the general public.

I have read and agree to the La Semana Code of Conduct. By signing this Code, I am pledging to adhere to the rules outlined here.

I understand that if I do not adhere to the Code of Conduct that disciplinary activity may be taken.
